Vini Spumanti – Sparkling Wine

Ferghettina	Franciacorta	1dl	9
		7.5dl	63

The crispy fresh Franciacorta made out of Chardonnay (95%) and Pinot Nero (5%) is traditionally fermented for 30 months in the bottle („méthode Champenoise“). This gives this Sparkling wine a crispy freshness and aromas that compete with the best wines from Champagne.

Farbüi	Garzoli	1dl	9
		7.5dl	60

An absolute rarity from Maggia, Robin Garzoli lives and breathes natural wines and this is his latest creation. A pure Americanello Grape Sparkling Rosé. Grown right on top of the stunning Maggia waterfall, this rosè blends childhood memories of americanello grapes flavors with the more adult dryness of a traditionally produced champagne. Great for a summery Aperitivo on the terrace.

Champagne Brut	Perriet – Jouet	3.75dl	51
		7.5dl	76

Perriet-Jouet, a name which needs no introduction. Classy, fancy and fresh, this Champagne is traditionally fermented in the bottle and matches almost every dish and every situation.

Vini passiti – Dessert Wine

Afrodite	La Costa	1dl	12
		5dl	61

Ever fancied trying out a locally made Sweetwine? The Azienda La Costa gives you exactly this chance. This sweet wine from Novazzano is produced in small quantities and with selected vintages. After drying the Semillon grapes the Afrodite ages two years in French oak barrels. The result: A light and easy drinking sweet wine which matches perfectly to any desserts and a variety of cheeses.

Ticino: Vini Rossi – Red Wine

Bella Stasera Urs Hauser Contone 54

Urs Hauser former electro-engineer turned winemaker, always cared and cultivated his vineyard with great passion and dedication. As the name “Bella Stasera” already promises, Urs presents a very uncomplicated and unfiltered Merlot to share with friends or... simply enjoy yourself.

Ultima Goccia Chiodi Vini 64

Magnum 133

From the best wine parcels of Verscio, Tegna and Cavigliano the family Arnaboldi produces this unique Merlot. Aged for twelve months in French oak barrels this wine present itself as a true joy, till the last drop – Ultima goccia.

Loto Syrah Tenuta vitivinicola Famiglia Ferrari 65

First these handpicked Syrah grapes age in a selection of different oak barrels for at least 28 months, After this process the unfiltered wine is stored further eight months inside the bottle. The Loto seduces with his ruby red colour and the Syrah typical flavours like pepper, cinnamon and nutmeg. The results is a full-bodied companion for heavier and more complex dishes.

Stregato Cantine Riva Morcôte 65

Thanks to wild yeasts this artfully produced Merlot ages masterfully for twelve months in new French oak barrels. The prestigious location of the Castel San Pietro vineyard is a key component of its success, and winemaker Patrick is a skilled master in extracting every single flavour out of his grapes. Fruity flavours followed by a long lasting finish.

San Vigiglio 75:25 Vini Rovio 69

Now to something a little different from our region. Gianfranco Chiesa would like you to try his newest creation, a blend of 75% Gamaret and 25% Syrah Grapes grown in Rovio itself, a quaint little town on lake Lugano. Aged 24 months in oak barrels, this blend brings power and refinement to the table.

Ticino: Vini Rossi – Red Wine

Triangolo	Cantina Giromit Fam. Zanini	50
-----------	-----------------------------	----

Fabio Zanini from Brissago presents with the Triangolo a Merlot in its absolute purity. The grapes are from Brissago, Terre di Pedemonte and Ronchini. These three vineyards form the “Triangolo”, the Triangle. Uncomplicated, easy to drink and aged in steel tanks only, this wine matches perfectly to native dishes or basic pasta dishes.

Amor	Cantina Helvetica	88
	Magnum 188 Jéroboam	380

Daniel D’Andrea, prior oenologist from the Cantina Monti (Rovere), ventured with his Cantina Helvetica into self-employment. With his absolute top wine L’Amor, he created a homage to wine. The grapes grow above Pianezzo (Val Morobbia). The 24 months aging in new oak barrels and the highly limited production make this wine a true “Trouvaille” from Ticino.

La Tur	Cantina Pizzorin	80
	Magnum	180

Giancarlo Pestoni from Sementina, whose vineyards are directly located between the stonewalls of the Castelli di Bellinzona, created in his La Tur an absolute masterpiece. The blend of Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon refined for 24 months in fresh oak barrels result in pure elegance and a hint of spiciness. A real gem for lovers of strong and structured wines.

No 7.	Cantina Welte – Graf	63
-------	----------------------	----

Pure Merlot, grown in Collina d’Oro near Lugano. The name golden hill isn’t just a coincidence, this terroir produces some of the finest sottoceneri wines available. Aged 18 months in oak barrels, this is a classic example for a simply delicious red merlot from our Region.

Italia: Vini Rossi – Red Wine

Promis Ca`Marcanda Angelo Gaja 65

Since 1996 Angelo Gaja produces his Ca`marcanda in the Maremma Toscana. The Promis is a blend of 55% Merlot, 35% Syrah and 10% Sangiovese. Smoothness paired with a full body and a perfect balance of fruity flavours and restrained tannins. With every sip, you are tasting the signature of a true winemaker, Gaja.

Langhe Rosso Roagna 66

The Langhe Rosso illustrates very well the ambition of Luca Roagna to merge innovation and tradition. Pure natural wine, freed of all chemicals, this Nebbiolo can shine bright. Heavy roasting inside the oak barrels give this wine an earthy and wild character. For the Nebbiolo lovers who isn't afraid of trying the natural path.

Le Chicche di Lorenzo – Tessiner Trouvailles von Lorenzo

Wine is my passion and I have a certain affinity for small local wineries. So, I'm always on the hunt for something new, but as they are true rarities I'm unable to put them on our menu. Nonetheless I don't like to hold them back and gladly introduce them to you. Did you ever wonder how a Nebbiolo from Ticino tastes? Or do you like to try a certain vintage? Please just call me! It would be a personal pleasure for me to help you out.
